Fort Irwin Garrison HQ Central Viewing Location for Virtual Delegates

Live streaming video from home: www.army.mil/professional

AUSA (Association of the United States Army) is the only private, professional organization uniquely supporting the needs and interests of the total Army (Active Duty, Army National Guard; Army Reserve; DA civilians; retirees and family members). Its annual convention in October is the largest land power exposition and professional development forum in North America, consisting of informative presentations, panel discussions, workshops and business meetings. Fort Irwin is one of more than 30 installation worldwide selected to host a live stream of the Family Forum at this year's annual meeting.

AUSA Family Forums highlight topics pertinent to Army Families

- Army senior leaders will provide their views and discuss topics that impact the readiness of Soldiers and their Families
- Commanders and senior spouses, Family Readiness Group leaders, Soldiers and Family members, and representatives from local organizations that support the Army Family are all invited to attend
- Central Viewing for the Forum will be at the Fort Irwin Garrison Headquarters Conference room Bldg. 237

See next two slide for topics and times, 12-14 October 2015 and viewing information.
